

TOMAHAWK HOUNDS GIVE GOOD CHASE

Miss Alice Wambersie Rides Well and Acts as Whip.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ORANGE, VA., February 5.—The Tomahawk Hunt Club had its first meet in February to-day, and those riding enjoyed a delightful run for at least five miles, beginning at Berkeley's Trestle and finishing up on Grymes's farm. The weather and footing were ideal. The hounds ran excellently, making two checks and going over the farms of O'Neal, Browning, Miller, Bell, Larimer and Gentry. The hounds were stiff enough to test the mettle of the horses and riders, and especially a difficult jump over a fence and ditch into the county road, which was negotiated in good shape by all those riding.

The riding of Miss Alice Wambersie, on Mr. Osbourne's Gray Gow, over this difficult jump was remarked on by all. Her horse landed in the ditch, going down, with its nose in the mud; but she pluckily pulled him up and continued riding, acting as whip. Fleet Galloway, of Warrenton, and Dick Donnelly, the famous rider of the world's champion high jumper, Herbert Bloom, saw the start.

Those riding were August Wambersie, acting M. P. H.; Miss Alice Wambersie and Wilbur Osbourne, whips; Manly Carter, Jack Lightfoot, Marvin Harris, Charles Warren and V. R. Shackelford.

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy-Matinee and Night, "The Cat and the Fiddle."
Bijou—"Tony, the Bootblack."
Lubin-Continuous Vaudeville.

"The Cat and the Fiddle."
An audience of considerable proportions, but somewhat skeptical as to the merits of "The Cat and the Fiddle," journeyed to the Academy last night, and was apparently well entertained for several hours by a somewhat mediocre extravaganza. The piece is somewhat overdone, and the old "cat" story, on the order of the old "cat" story, and if interpreted by a stronger cast would be a first-class attraction. As it is, the cast disclosed only one member who possessed more than average ability, and that was Charles Sellen, a tramp comedian, new to these parts, but who made a distinct hit, though some of his jokes were overdone and others right on the bat, decidedly so for a Richmond audience. The staging is the most noteworthy feature of the production, and is, indeed, elaborate and handsome, while the mechanical effects are weird and highly ingenious. An even dozen chorus girls of every size and description added life and spirit, enlivening the dull night performances to-day, closing the engagement.

Players Are Sold.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., February 5.—Manager Al Orth, of the local ball team, has effected the following sales: Infielder Byrd, to Wilson, of the Eastern Carolina League; Catcher Bentley and Outfielder Armstrong, to the Carolina Association, and Catcher Westlake, who managed the Shoemakers a month last year, to Danville, Va. John Kaley, the Bloomington, Md., first baseman; Pitcher Schuman and Outfielder Armstrong are yet to be disposed of.

William and Mary Wins.

NEWPORT NEWS, VA., February 5.—The William and Mary College basketball team beat the local Young Men's Christian Association here to-night by a score of 22 to 26.

DELAWARE TAKES FIRST DP TO-DAY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., February 5.—Governor S. S. Pennewill and a large party of distinguished Delaware people, including Miss Anna Pennewill, sponsor for the new warship, namesake of her State, arrived here to-night to attend the launching of the battleship Delaware at the plant of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company to-morrow. Interested in Bonds.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHRISTIANSBURG, VA., February 5.—Prominent men, not only from all over Montgomery county, but from the adjoining counties and cities as well, assembled here to-day to hear the State Highway Commissioner, P. St. J. Wilson, lecture on good roads. Stereoscopic views of road building in various parts of the State were shown, and Mr. Wilson in his talk urged the people to apply for State aid in the construction of good roads. The lecture was held in the town of Martinsville, but no pains will be spared to make the occasion a success. About 150 delegates are expected.
